The Artist Promotional Summer Series

“Wine & Artistry is Delicacy”

Thank you for taking an interest in our Artist Promotional Summer Event Series!

"Wine & Artistry is Delicacy" is a series of artist showcases that will be presented throughout the Greater Philadelphia Area. We believe that these intimate gatherings of tasteful wine and artistry will provide the ambiance and opportunity for local artists to showcase and/or sell their work to a broader audience.

Tigerlily Events is dedicated to planning and personalizing our promotional event series to provide a welcoming atmosphere that will best compliment the artist's works and energy. Each event series will be held usually on the last Sunday of each month (except July) and feature 3 to 5 artists. Tigerlily Events will be responsible for providing the relaxing event location, enthusiastic invitees, tasteful wine and overall ambiance. We just ask our artist to bring their talent and the event is sure to be a success!

There is an introductory artist fee of $50.00. If you are interested, please fill out the attached document and email it to eventsbytigerlily@gmail.com.

We at Tigerlily Events are dedicated to spreading the word about the astounding artists that grace the Greater Philadelphia Area.

Thank you and Tigerlily Events looks forward to working with you!
